LÉGENDE

The legend shows four musical symbols on a five-line staff:

- A single quarter note with an accent (>) above it, labeled "caisse claire".
- A single quarter note with an accent (>) above it and a horizontal line above the note, labeled "caisse claire accentuée".
- A series of six eighth notes with a wedge-shaped crescendo hairpin above them, labeled "crescendo (jouer de plus en plus fort)".
- Two eighth notes with a horizontal line above them, labeled "notes barrées = doubles frappes".

♩ = 100

The main score consists of seven staves of music in 4/4 time. The tempo is marked as ♩ = 100. The notation includes:
